SOURCE

1. Kesselbauer (fnu), Communist Bezirksleiter of Vienna II, stated at a meeting of Communist Party officials on 1 April 1949 that action groups were to be formed at an early date in each Communist Section. These groups will consist of five or six reliable young men who will be responsible to the Section leaders.
2. Each member of an action group will be given the address of one other member of the group. In an emergency, one member will notify a second member, the two will notify a third member, etc., until the entire group is alerted.
3. The list of candidates for the action groups is to be submitted by the Sections to the Communist Party District Headquarters, which will make the final decision concerning the rejection or acceptance of the candidates included in the list.
